At the opening of the civil superior court here on Wednesday morning, the jury was sent out to continue their deliberations in the case of Robish vs. Coughlin, which they were considering when excused for the day on Tuesday. At 10.40 o'clock they came in and Foreman Thomas reported that they could not agree, and there seemed little prospect of it. They were informed by Judge Reed that they could decide it as well as any other jury and sent them back to consider it farther. It was after twelve when they came in the second time and stated to the court that there was absolutely the chance for them to agree. Judge Reed excused them from further consideration of the cases.

The jury agreed that they would not say how they stood in the matter, but it was reported that they stood 9 to 2 for the defendant.

The next case, that of Hyman Mintz of Colchester vs. Roger Foote of Lebanon, was then taken up and a jury selected for the trial. Mr. Mintx agreed to buy two lots of land and buildings thereon in Lebanon and pay Mr. Foote $300 for them. After Mr. Mintz got the deed and it was for the transfer of the whole property that he it won't be long before the bald spot appears.

The time to take care of the hair is when you have hair to take care of.

For thin falling hair the best remedy known to mankind is Parlsian Sage. It is compounded on scientific principles and furnishes to the hair root a nour-ishment that acts quickly and promptly and causes the hair to grow.

But remember this: It kills the dandruff germ, the pest that appropriates all the natural nourishment that should go to the hair root.

Parisian Sage is soid by The Lee & Osgood Co., under a positive guarantee to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or
